NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FEBRUARY 29, 2004

NOTE 1 - OVERVIEW AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Overview

Creative Recycling Technologies, Inc., (now known as Ingen Technologies, Inc. and hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Registrant") was incorporated under the laws of the state of Georgia in 1995 under the name Classic Restaurants International, Inc. The Registrant changed its name in 1998 to Creative Recycling Technologies, Inc. As of February 29, 2004, the Registrant did not have any active business operations.

The Registrant entered into an Agreement and Plan of Share Exchange dated February 27, 1998 with AA Corp. under which the Registrant had agreed to purchase all of the issued and outstanding stock of AA Corp. This agreement was mutually rescinded by an agreement dated December 1999. Among the reasons for rescission were: 1) AA Corp. was never a valid entity; and 2) its primary shareholder was stated to be a trust that was never created and did not exist. As a result of these circumstances, the proposed Agreement and Plan of Share Exchange dated February 27, 1998 was deemed null and void. For purposes of the financial information contained herein, the activity of AA Corp. is entirely ignored and has been deemed to have never been a legal part of the Registrant. The Registrant did issue stock as consideration for the acquisition of AA Corp. Some of this stock was cancelled or returned. The value of the stock that was issued as consideration for the acquisition of AA Corp. that was never returned or cancelled has been deducted as an expense when it was issued.

From 1999 through March of 2004 the Registrant had no significant business activities.

In March of 2004, the Registrant merged with (purchased all the stock of) a Nevada corporation, Ingen Technologies, Inc. Ingen Technologies, Inc. survived as a wholly owned subsidiary in Nevada for the sole purpose of operating the new business of the Registrant. The Registrant remained a Georgia company, with completely new management and an active business plan in the medical devices industry (operated by the Nevada corporation with the same name). Shortly thereafter, the name of the Registrant was changed to Ingen Technologies, Inc. Due to the acquisition of a new subsidiary in March of 2004 and the Registrant subsequently adopting the subsidiary's fiscal year end of May 31, the Registrant has changed its fiscal year end to be May 31 effective with the filing of this report. For more current information on the Registrant, please see more recent filings.

The Registrant reduced the authorized number of shares of its common shares from 500 million to 100 million in 2005. The number of authorized preferred shares is 40 million. Effective December 6, 2005, the Registrant authorized a reverse split of common shares on a ratio of 40 into 1; thereby reducing the number of issued shares from 488,037,593 to 12,201,138. The preferred shares were also reverse split at a ratio of 3 into 1, reducing the issued preferred shares from 39.9 million to 13.3 million. The preferred shares are convertible into common shares on a 1 into 1 basis and are entitled to vote on an equal footing with common shares on all matters for which shareholder voting input is required. The Registrant's common stock currently trades under the symbol "IGTG." The shares outstanding as of February 29, 2004 have been adjusted to reflect this reverse stock split.

Interim Financial Information

The financial statements presented in this report have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for interim reporting and include all adjustments which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for fair presentation. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States have been omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations for interim reporting. These financial statements for the three and eight month periods ended February 29, 2004 are not necessarily indicative of the results which may be expected for an entire fiscal year. The two and eight month periods ending February 29, 2004 are shown in a comparison with the three and nine month periods ending March 31, 2003 due to the change in the Registrant's fiscal year from June 30 to May 31 effective with this filing.

NOTE 2 - PER SHARE INFORMATION

Basic loss per common share for the two and eight months ended February 29, 2004 and the three and nine months ended March 31, 2003 has been computed based on net income (loss) divided by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Dilutive net loss per share is not reported since the effects are anti-dilutive and the Registrant is in a net loss position. For the two and eight months ended February 29, 2004 and the three and nine months ended March 31, 2003, the weighted average number of shares outstanding totaled 321,615 and 321,615, respectively (these average number of shares outstanding have been adjusted for the forty-for-one reverse stock split that took place on December 6, 2005).

NOTE 3 - GOING CONCERN

As shown in the accompanying financial statements, the Registrant reported net income of $0 for the two and eight months ended February 29, 2004 and a loss of $4,414 for the nine months ended March 31, 2003. The Registrant has incurred total losses of $10,642,494 since its inception. Therefore, the ability of the Registrant to continue as a going concern is dependent on obtaining additional capital and financing. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Registrant is unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 4 - PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

The Registrant did not own any property and equipment as of February 29, 2004.

NOTE 5 - NOTES PAYABLE

The Registrant entered into notes payable with various third parties from October 1994 through June 1997. None of these notes were ever paid. These notes were written off in the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002 due to the lapse of the statute of limitations for the holders to collect them.

7

NOTE 6 - LEGAL ISSUES

None.

NOTE 7 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

From 1999 through March of 2004 the Registrant had no significant business activities.

In March of 2004, the Registrant merged with (purchased all the stock of) a Nevada corporation, Ingen Technologies, Inc. Ingen Technologies, Inc. survived as a wholly owned subsidiary in Nevada for the sole purpose of operating the new business of the Registrant. The Registrant remained a Georgia company, with completely new management and an active business plan in the medical devices industry (operated by the Nevada corporation with the same name). Shortly thereafter, the name of the Registrant was changed to Ingen Technologies, Inc. For more current information on the Registrant, please see more recent filings.

8

The Registrant reduced the authorized number of shares of its common shares from 500 million to 100 million in 2005. The number of authorized preferred shares is 40 million. Effective December 6, 2005, the Registrant authorized a reverse split of common shares on a ratio of 40 into 1; thereby reducing the number of issued shares from 488,037,593 to 12,201,138. The preferred shares were also reverse split at a ratio of 3 into 1, reducing the issued preferred shares from 39.9 million to 13.3 million. The preferred shares are convertible into common shares on a 1 into 1 basis and are entitled to vote on an equal footing with common shares on all matters for which shareholder voting input is required. The Registrant's common stock currently trades under the symbol "IGTG." The shares outstanding as of February 29, 2004 have been adjusted to reflect this reverse stock split.
