NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
MARCH 31, 2000

NOTE 1 - OVERVIEW AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Overview

Creative Recycling Technologies, Inc., (now known as Ingen Technologies, Inc. and hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Registrant") was incorporated under the laws of the state of Georgia in 1995 under the name Classic Restaurants International, Inc. The Registrant changed its name in 1998 to Creative Recycling Technologies, Inc. Until February 1999, the Registrant owned and operated a restaurant through a wholly owned subsidiary. The wholly owned subsidiary that operated the restaurants was sold in February 1999, and the Registrant no longer had any substantial activities at this point. For purposes of the financial information for the periods ended March 31, 1999, the sale of the restaurant was deemed to be effective on July 1, 1998 (the first day of the fiscal year). The gain on the sale of the subsidiary is shown in the nine months ended March 31, 1999 in the statement of operations.

The Registrant entered into an Agreement and Plan of Share Exchange dated February 27, 1998 with AA Corp. under which the Registrant had agreed to purchase all of the issued and outstanding stock of AA Corp. This agreement was mutually rescinded by an agreement dated December 1999. Among the reasons for rescission were: 1) AA Corp. was never a valid entity; and 2) its primary shareholder was stated to be a trust that was never created and did not exist. As a result of these circumstances, the proposed Agreement and Plan of Share Exchange dated February 27, 1998 was deemed null and void. For purposes of the financial information contained herein, the activity of AA Corp. is entirely ignored and has been deemed to have never been a legal part of the Registrant. The Registrant did issue stock as consideration for the acquisition of AA Corp. Some of this stock was cancelled or returned. The value of the stock that was issued as consideration for the acquisition of AA Corp. that was never returned or cancelled has been deducted as an expense when it was issued.

From 1999 through March of 2004 the Registrant had no significant business activities.

In March of 2004, the Registrant merged with (purchased all the stock of) a Nevada corporation, Ingen Technologies, Inc. Ingen Technologies, Inc. survived as a wholly owned subsidiary in Nevada for the sole purpose of operating the new business of the Registrant. The Registrant remained a Georgia company, with completely new management and an active business plan in the medical devices industry (operated by the Nevada corporation with the same name). Shortly thereafter, the name of the Registrant was changed to Ingen Technologies, Inc. For more current information on the Registrant, please see more recent filings.

The Registrant reduced the authorized number of shares of its common shares from 500 million to 100 million in 2005. The number of authorized preferred shares is 40 million. Effective December 6, 2005, the Registrant authorized a reverse split of common shares on a ratio of 40 into 1; thereby reducing the number of issued shares from 488,037,593 to 12,201,138. The preferred shares were also reverse split at a ratio of 3 into 1, reducing the issued preferred shares from 39.9 million to 13.3 million. The preferred shares are convertible into common shares on a 1 into 1 basis and are entitled to vote on an equal footing with common shares on all matters for which shareholder voting input is required. The Registrant's common stock currently trades under the symbol "IGTG." The shares outstanding as of March 31, 2000 have been adjusted to reflect this reverse stock split.

Interim Financial Information

The financial statements presented in this report have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for interim reporting and include all adjustments which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for fair presentation. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States have been omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations for interim reporting. These financial statements for the three and nine-month periods ended March 31, 2000 are not necessarily indicative of the results which may be expected for an entire fiscal year.

NOTE 2 - PER SHARE INFORMATION

Basic loss per common share for the three and nine-months ended March 31, 2000 and March 31, 1999 have been computed based on net income (loss) divided by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Dilutive net loss per share is not reported since the effects are anti-dilutive and the Registrant is in a net loss position. For the three months ended March 31, 2000 and March 31, 1999, the weighted average number of shares outstanding totaled 321,615 and 246,190, respectively (these average number of shares outstanding have been adjusted for the forty-for-one reverse stock split that took place on December 6, 2005). For the nine months ended March 31, 2000 and March 31, 1999, the weighted average number of shares outstanding totaled 315,081 and 203,288, respectively (these average number of shares outstanding have been adjusted for the forty-for-one reverse stock split that took place on December 6, 2005).

NOTE 3 - GOING CONCERN

As shown in the accompanying financial statements, the Registrant incurred a net loss of $3,306 for the quarter ended March 31, 2000. The Registrant has incurred total losses of $10,885,486 since its inception. Therefore, the ability of the Registrant to continue as a going concern is dependent on obtaining additional capital and financing. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Registrant is unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 4 - PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

The Registrant did not own any property and equipment as of March 31, 2000.

NOTE 5 - NOTES PAYABLE

The Registrant entered into notes payable with various third parties from October 1994 through June 1997. As of March 31, 2000, the total outstanding principal balance of these notes was $86,468. All of these notes were past due as of March 31, 2000. None of these notes were ever paid. The notes were written off in June of 2002 due to the lapse of the statute of limitations for the holders to collect them.

NOTE 6 - LEGAL ISSUES

In May of 1997, Mark Shoom filed a lawsuit against the Registrant and James Shaw, the President of the Registrant at the time. The suit attempted to collect principal, interest and attorney's fees due under a promissory note dated October 9, 1996 in the original principal amount of $80,000 payable by the Registrant and personally guaranteed by Mr. Shaw. In June 1997, the Registrant entered into a Settlement Agreement with Mr. Shoom under which the Registrant agreed to issue Mr. Shoom 114,737 shares of its common stock (no adjustment for the reverse stock split that occurred in 2005). This debt was written off in the fiscal year ended June 30, 1998. Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Mr. Shoom was guaranteed to net $103,000 from the sale of the stock issued to him. The Registrant had to issue additional shares to Mr. Shoom in July 1999. The value of these additional shares ($105,000) was deducted as interest expense at this time. The note is considered fully settled.

John Jardine commenced legal action against the Registrant to recover damages under a subordinated debenture. Mr. Jardine received a default judgment against the Registrant in the amount of $253,000. This judgment was accrued. In July of 1999, the Registrant issued Mr. Jardine 200,000 shares of its Class A common stock (5,000 shares after the effect of the reverse stock split on December 6, 2005) to settle this liability. This liability was written off at this time.

In June of 1999, the Registrant initiated a lawsuit against Voyager Select IPO Fund ("Voyager"). In 1996 Voyager had invested $500,000 in the Registrant. In consideration for this investment, the Registrant issued twenty shares of convertible preferred stock, each of which was entitled to a liquidation preference of $25,000. Subsequently, Voyager converted six shares of the preferred stock into shares of common stock of the Registrant.

The lawsuit alleged that Voyager colluded with the former management of the Registrant to enter into a Securities Purchase Agreement on June 23, 1997 with the purpose of defrauding the Registrant's shareholders and creditors at the time. The net effect of the Securities Purchase Agreement was that Voyager converted an investment in the Registrant with a liquidation preference of $500,000 into an investment with a liquidation preference of $1,050,000, including a cash payment due by the Registrant to Voyager in the amount of $250,000. Because of its financial condition, the Registrant could not possibly pay the cash due. By June 30, 1999, this matter was fully resolved without the Registrant incurring any financial obligation to Voyager.

NOTE 7 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

From 1999 through March of 2004 the Registrant had no significant business activities.

In March of 2004, the Registrant merged with (purchased all the stock of) a Nevada corporation, Ingen Technologies, Inc. Ingen Technologies, Inc. survived as a wholly owned subsidiary in Nevada for the sole purpose of operating the new business of the Registrant. The Registrant remained a Georgia company, with completely new management and an active business plan in the medical devices industry (operated by the Nevada corporation with the same name). Shortly thereafter, the name of the Registrant was changed to Ingen Technologies, Inc. For more current information on the Registrant, please see more recent filings.

The Registrant reduced the authorized number of shares of its common shares from 500 million to 100 million in 2005. The number of authorized preferred shares is 40 million. Effective December 6, 2005, the Registrant authorized a reverse split of common shares on a ratio of 40 into 1; thereby reducing the number of issued shares from 488,037,593 to 12,201,138. The preferred shares were also reverse split at a ratio of 3 into 1, reducing the issued preferred shares from 39.9 million to 13.3 million. The preferred shares are convertible into common shares on a 1 into 1 basis and are entitled to vote on an equal footing with common shares on all matters for which shareholder voting input is required. The Registrant's common stock currently trades under the symbol "IGTG." The shares outstanding as of March 31, 2000 have been adjusted to reflect this reverse stock split.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1 - LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

In May of 1997, Mark Shoom filed a lawsuit against the Registrant and James Shaw, the President of the Registrant at the time. The suit attempted to collect principal, interest and attorney's fees due under a promissory note dated October 9, 1996 in the original principal amount of $80,000 payable by the Registrant and personally guaranteed by Mr. Shaw. In June 1997, the Registrant entered into a Settlement Agreement with Mr. Shoom under which the Registrant agreed to issue Mr. Shoom 114,737 shares of its common stock (no adjustment for the reverse stock split that occurred in 2005). This debt was written off in the fiscal year ended June 30, 1998. Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Mr. Shoom was guaranteed to net $103,000 from the sale of the stock issued to him. The Registrant had to issue additional shares to Mr. Shoom in July 1999. The value of these additional shares ($105,000) was deducted as interest expense at this time. The note is considered fully settled.

John Jardine commenced legal action against the Registrant to recover damages under a subordinated debenture. Mr. Jardine received a default judgment against the Registrant in the amount of $253,000. This judgment was accrued. In July of 1999, the Registrant issued Mr. Jardine 200,000 shares of its Class A common stock (5,000 shares after the effect of the reverse stock split on December 6, 2005) to settle this liability. This liability was written off at this time.

In June of 1999, the Registrant initiated a lawsuit against Voyager Select IPO Fund ("Voyager"). In 1996 Voyager had invested $500,000 in the Registrant. In consideration for this investment, the Registrant issued twenty shares of convertible preferred stock, each of which was entitled to a liquidation preference of $25,000. Subsequently, Voyager converted six shares of the preferred stock into shares of common stock of the Registrant.

The lawsuit alleged that Voyager colluded with the former management of the Registrant to enter into a Securities Purchase Agreement on June 23, 1997 with the purpose of defrauding the Registrant's shareholders and creditors at the time. The net effect of the Securities Purchase Agreement was that Voyager converted an investment in the Registrant with a liquidation preference of $500,000 into an investment with a liquidation preference of $1,050,000, including a cash payment due by the Registrant to Voyager in the amount of $250,000. Because of its financial condition, the Registrant could not possibly pay the cash due. By June 30, 1999, this matter was fully resolved without the Registrant incurring any financial obligation to Voyager.
